RE: United States of America vs. Stephen E. Vierling
Case Number: 4:11CR238RWS

Dear Judge Sippel:

I am writing you to respectfully request that I be released from my sentence of probation imposed by the Court on October 28, 2011. I have completed all conditions of my supervision including 200 hours of community service and full payment of restitution effective November 18, 2011. I have had no violations during my time on probation, and I have been employed full time since June, 2012.

While you may not remember the specifics of my case, I just want you to know that I have learned from the huge mistake I made before coming forward to the Government in 2007. I have fully accepted the consequences of that mistake. What I did was morally wrong. I let myself down and those I love down. I have tried my best to be a good husband, father, and member of society. I have given back to the community through my service work with the St. Vincent DePaul Society, Criminal Justice Ministry, and my church, and I will continue to do so. I have been and will continue to be a productive and positive member of society.

Lastly, I would like you to know that my probation officer, Ms. Vashell Anderson, was always respectful and professional in our interactions. I truly appreciate her consideration during this time.

Thank you for reading my letter, Judge Sippel, and thank you for considering my request.

Sincerely,

Stephen E. Vierling
